success criterium: in order to successfully pass this test, you need to achieve at least 16 points.
equipment: only blank papers and pen allowed, no calculators, mobile phone, electronic devices or notes.

Please adhere to the following rules:

At the beginning: Please

- arrive by 10:05 the latest and bring 8 blank A4 size papers, pen and a photo ID card for the test (you may find bringing a watch useful);
- note that it is not possible to take the test if you arrive more than 30 minutes late;
- After arrival, please
  - take a seat according to the above seating plan;
  - prepare the blank papers and pen and place your photo ID on your desk;
  - turn off you mobile phone and put it in your bag;
  - remove all forbidden equipment, e.g. any notes, electronic devices from your desk, chair and under your desk or anywhere around you, and place these in your bag.

During the test:

Important: Please keep your mobile phone turned off, in your bag throughout the test, and do not remove it from there for any purpose, not even for checking the time. (The time will be written on the board frequently, about every 15 minutes, and of course you can bring a watch to the test.) Thank you.

Please

- keep your mobile phone turned off, in your bag throughout the test, and do not remove it from there for any purpose, not even for checking the time; the time will be written on the board frequently, about every 15 minutes; or please bring a watch to the test;
- do not use any forbidden equipment and do not talk or communicate with each other;
- do not leave the room; if you feel you might need the bathroom, please use it before the test;
- if you run out of paper, please indicate this by raising your hand and you will be provided with it;
- if you need help, please indicate this to one of the invigilatirors; note, that the invigilators cannot help with solving the questions or checking your solutions or give you feedback or answer mathematical questions during the test.

At the end of the test: Please

- if you finish the test earlier you can submit it earlier; however, note that it is not possible to leave the room in the first 30 minutes after the start or in the last 10 minutes before the end, in order to avoid disturbing others working;
- if you would like to take a photo of your paper after finishing and before submitting it, please notify an invigilator about this; do not take your mobile phone/camera out of your bag without permission.

After the test:

- The midterm test paper will be uploaded to and made available on Canvas soon after the test.
- Your test script will be marked and your result entered on your practice class' page (only visible to you) by your practice class teacher within 2 weeks after the test.
- Your practice class teacher will offer your practice group a viewing time, when you can look at the marking of your paper and obtain feedback on it.

Thank you and all the best!

The midterm test is an assignment associated with the practice classes. Your result in this test counts towards your practice grade. For detailed information about the practice grade and the rules of assessment in the practice classes, please see the document titled: 'Rules of attendance and assessment in the practice classes' available on the Canvas page of your practice class.
